A REMARKABLE CASE-A WOMAN SEEKS TO RID HERSELF OF HER CHILD .- A few days ago a widow well known in Petersburg and vicinity, and connected with the most respectable families of Virginia, left Portsmouth with an infant two or three monthsold. She was accompanied by a white nurse, who was paid to assist in accomplishing a certain end -that end, the getting rid of the child. They arrived in Richmond, where the girl, apparently unwilldeed proposed by the mother, left the lady and did not return, though she had been paid in advance for her services. The lady took the train for Petersburg two or three days since, and arriving here, endeavored to hire a colored girl to carry out her purpose. It was her intention to have the child left at the house of one of our well-known citizens, whose address she had. The girl secretly gave information of the cirsouthern train at the time, and she hoped to Hudson, N. Y. have left the infant at the house in question at a moment too late for it to be returned to her. She was visited by officers Richardson and Leath, as also the gentleman whom she designed to make the unwilling guardian of the child; but notwithstanding the protestations of the former, the latter knew nothing of her. There was evidently something wrong in the premi-

EFFORTS TO PROCURE THE PARDON OF MR. DAVIS .-- Paul Bagley, formerly a missionary to India and Japan, went to Fortress Monroe on it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, the 19th instant, and spent Saturday and Sunday in conversation with Jefferson Davis. The object of his visit was to induce Mr. Davis to apply to the President for a pardon, in the obtaining of which he offered Mr. Davis his services. Mr. Bagley believed that it a regular application should be made by Mr. Davis, he could support it with a petition presenting such an array of influential names, a large proportion of them from the Radical Republican party, that the movement would be as successful as that made by him in the case of Gov. Vance. Mr. Davis, however, declined accepting the proposition. He said to ask for pardon was a confession of guilt, and that such an application would prejudice his case at the trial, which he was given to understand was close at hand. Mr. Bagely, nothing daunted with the ill success he met at Fortress Monroe, arrived here to day, and this afternoon called on the President to ascertain whether a pardon would be granted to Jefferson Davis without an application if petitions were presented of a satisfactory character. It is understood that Mr. Bagley was equally unsuccessful at the White House. In the exercise of the pardon- formation. ing power the President has been guided by an inflexible rule-never to grant a pardon on petitions, unless such petitions were accompanied by an application from the individual seeking the Executive clemency. - Cor. of N.

and through this State to any point beyond the same." The oyster tax bill, imposing a tax on oysters taken up and carried out of the state, was passed.

In the House of Delegates the per diem resolution of the Senate was rejected by a close vote, and then reconsidered by a large vote The Richmond and Danville extension railroad bill, was ordered to be engrossed. A resolution to adjourn on Monday next was passed by both Houses. The 'per diem' resolution of the Senate, and its rejection and reconsideration by the House, give rise to severe comments from the public press. The Senate resolution seems to be universally condemned.

Y. Herald. GENERAL ASSEMBLY .-- he Senate, on Tuesday, passed the bill regulating railroads and canals, with the proviso, that "it shall not be lawful for any railroad or canal company within this State to enter into or form any schedule under which a greater sum is charged for transportation from any point beyond the State to any point within the State than is charged for like transportation from such point

-For the year ending June 30, 1866, there was collected in Virginia $1,154,004.87, of which $2,157.68 was refunded, leaving the total realized $1,151,847.19 - more money than | CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES, which I will sell any one would suppose there was then in the as cheap as they can be bought in any market. State. Such a drain as this upon our resources must keep us poor for years, if not forever. We could better afford to pay ten millions of dollars of taxes to be expended help for it, we may as well pay the tax with a good grace, and hope for the day when we may own bonds enough, or get Government contracts enough, to keep the money here.
